FPAC is a 501 (c) (3) organization that provides shelter, meals, transportation, and education to children and families experiencing homelessness and poverty. In the 2018-2019 school year, Albany County School District identified 45 students in K-12 as homeless by the standards of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act. Albany County is among the poorest communities in Wyoming and does not currently have the resources to build a homeless shelter. FPAC addresses this absence and surpasses the services of a traditional shelter in connecting families to community support. FPAC's goal is to graduate families into housing that fits their budget and to help these families understand and use all resources available to them to maintain stable housing. The requested funds will help FPAC grow to better address the needs of its families and decrease homelessness in Albany County and Laramie.

Declaration: I hereby certify that the information give in this application for Community Partner funding is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
