

Agenda Item: Resolution

Title: Resolution 2020-15, Authorizing Suspension of All Board and Commission Meetings Until Otherwise Noticed

Recommended Council MOTION:

That Council approve Resolution 2020-15, authorizing suspension of all board and commission meetings until deemed unnecessary by the City Council, unless deemed legally necessary to continue city operations or to keep minimal impact to residents and authorize the Mayor and Clerk to sign.

Administrative or Policy Goal:

The purpose of this Resolution is to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

Background:

The COVID-19 virus is spreading across the globe and is now in the state of Wyoming. The governing body is taking measures to protect the public and staff from spreading the virus through unnecessary contact through public meetings. Meetings will resume when Council deems that these measures are no longer necessary. Provision is made in the resolution to allow the City Attorney, City Clerk, or City Manager to call a special meeting of a board or commission as legally necessary.
