

Competition Information

Welcome

The Laramie community is proud to host the 2017 Wyoming Senior Olympics, August 2-5. We extend a hearty welcome and invite you to participate. Individuals age 50 or older as of December 31, 2017 may participate in events that they are physically capable of performing. To avoid injury, athletes should have trained to compete prior to the Olympics. The Wyoming Senior Olympics are considered “open,” therefore any resident of the United States and Canada age 50 and over is eligible to participate.

Age for Competing

Age divisions for all events for men and women are as follows: 50-54, 55-59, 60-64, 65-69, 70-74, 75-79, 80-84, 85-89, 90-94, 95 and over. Age for competition is determined by the athlete’s age as of December 31, 2017. Age for doubles and team competition is determined by the age of the youngest doubles partner or team member as of December 31, 2017.

Medal Policy

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to the top three placing participants at the conclusion of each event. During National Senior Games qualifying years (2018, 2020, etc.), the top three Wyoming residents will also be eligible for National Senior Games competition, regardless of whether he/she medaled in that event.

Refund Policy

Request for refunds must be made in writing to the Wyoming Senior Olympics Board of Directors, P.O. Box C, Laramie, WY 82073. Approved refunds will be assessed a $10 processing fee. Refunds will be issued for the following reasons:

1. An event is canceled by the Wyoming Senior Olympics Official(s) (No processing fee assessed).
2. A medical reason, validated by a physician in writing, provided prior to the start of the Senior Olympics.

No refund will be issued after the completion of the Olympics.
