

Things To-Do/See In Laramie

THE LEGENDS OF LARAMIE TOUR

SNEAK PEEK

BUCKET OF BLOOD SHOOTOUT
Experience a shootout on the streets of Laramie.

RODEO ROOTS
Riding, Roping, Racing. Modern day rodeo lives on each July in Laramie.

AMES MONUMENT
Completed in 1882 this monolithic 60 foot high granite pyramid was built by the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

LARAMIE'S FIRST MOBILE INTERACTIVE
On this interactive adventure, you'll experience pioneers, outlaws and vigilantes. At each of the 15 locations, you'll view a video, slideshow, or panorama from Laramie's colorful past. Choose your first location, then unlock each legend with your smartphone or tablet.

THE GOOD
EDWARD IVINSON

THE BAD
BUTCH CASSIDY

THE UGLY
BIG NOSE GEORGE

HISTORIC WALKING TOURS

Pick up an informative brochure at the Laramie Visitor Center 210 E. Custer, Laramie or just wander the streets at your leisure, soaking up some of the finest and most varied History in Wyoming.

- Albany County Museums
- Centennial Tour
- Historic Architectural Treasures
- Historic Downtown Laramie
- The Campus of University of Wyoming
- The Old Lincoln Highway
- Railroads of Albany County
- West Side Stories

Wyoming Senior Olympics - Laramie - Summer 2017

Things To-Do/See In Laramie

ALBANY COUNTY / LARAMIE AREA VISITOR'S GUIDE

MOUNTAIN BIKING

With over a hundred mountain biking trails to choose from, the area around Laramie is a paradise for exploration on two wheels. Choose your level of challenge, from easy scenic trails suitable for families to technical single tracks that will challenge the most experienced riders. Laramie's downtown bike shops are staffed with knowledgeable locals who can assist in your planning and help you find all the gear you'll need to make your biking vacation memorable and safe.

Photo by Brian Clark - Vidantour

HIKING & CAMPING

Whether you seek the solitude of an alpine lake, the raw beauty of weathered granite, or a simple walk close to town, the hiking trails around Laramie offer something for everyone. Families will find fun and exploration close to town, while backpackers can spend a week in the high country of the Medicine Bow Mountains. Local outdoor shops offer experienced staff who can help outfit you for a few hours or a few days of exploration on your own.

Photo by BHP Images - Camping at Vidantour

Photo by BHP Images - Rainbow on the Laramie

FISHING

The rivers, lakes and ponds around Laramie provide hours of exciting fishing for anglers of all abilities. Cutthroat, Rainbow, Brown and Brook trout are abundant in the Big Laramie River, the Little Laramie River, the alpine lakes of the Snowy Range and even scattered beaver ponds. Local fly-fishing guides can help you arrange a memorable float trip down the North Platte River including a famous five and a half mile section affectionately called the Miracle Mile.

CANOEING & KAYAKING

Pristine alpine lakes, roaring rivers and placid ponds invite a boater to dip in their oars. Spend an afternoon watching eagles hunt and moose graze as your boat drifts by or enjoy the excitement of white water kayaking.